MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH The Women's Missionary society will meet at the church, Monday, May 14 at half past two o'clock.

The topic, "The Sunrise Kingdom," the churches were and current events in old Japan will be reviewed, and a very attractive program has been arranged as follows:

Mrs. Gordon will read by request her paper prepared for the Bay View club, "Some Eminent Missionary Women."

Mrs. Saxon will give "An American Traveler in Japan."

Short talks will be given about the phases of present day mission work.

Mrs. Devoe will sing "It Was For Me," and Misses Brown and Edwards will render one of their charming duets.

The Roll Call will be "Names and Fields of Famous Missionaries."

This service is open to the public, and visitors are cordially welcome to all the meetings of the society.

STOCK COMPANY HERE ALL NEXT WEEK—GOOD SHOW To the Theatre Goers of Tucumcari—

Having temporary management of The Evans Opera House on account of the illness of Mr. Evans and realizing that it is a demand for first-class Stock Com. at popular city prices. I have booked one of the best "The Theatre Stock Co." for all week commencing Monday the 18th.

I have investigated this company and reports from all the house managers are alike in that they are among the best on the road. You will have opportunity of seeing some of the best comedies and dramas including "The Squaw Man," "The Tenth Man of the Hour," "Paid in Full," "Montana," "The Crisis" and "Mrs. Temple's Telegram."

These excellent plays will be produced by a first class company at the very low prices of 10c, 25c and 50c, being the lowest prices this company has played for in this section.

well is in good condition for all kinds of field work. Fall sown grains are making an excellent showing, pastures growing nicely and stock look good. Everybody is preparing for planting. These are promises of a bumper crop.

Rev. Lewis could not fill his regular appointment last Sunday on account of the union singing convention held on the same Sunday. The convention was well attended and enjoyed by everybody present. The next singing convention will be held at Roosevelt the first Sunday in June.

Ky Deaks and John Steinhagen were home visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. E. Barr has her mother visiting with her.

E. Sprinkle and family moved to the farm near McAllister. Glad to have them come back.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. met at the home of the president, Mrs. E. Barr, to observe Mothers' Day. A good program consisting of prayer, sermon on the scripture lesson and reading, also a good deal of business came before the union. Plans were made to hold a silver medal contest on May 30. Following the program a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Dora Jolley, J. Bolin of Missouri, is visiting his children here. Mr. Bolin thinks this is a fine country and perhaps will locate here permanently.

Little Miss Lavina May Mandell attended our farmers' institute with her parents, and her conduct is unsurpassed. She gave the most careful attention, even to her father's excellent address as well as to those of Messrs. Trumbull and Smith, and is a model pupil in every respect. Coming from Quay County's model farm, so successful an experiment must be a matter of great satisfaction to the station's popular superintendent.

Mrs. C. E. Sear of Dallas, Texas, a daughter of W. E. Powell spent the last day of April at the home of her sister Marie, whose health is rapidly failing.

Mrs. John A. Sear suffered a repeated attack of gall stones on Friday of last week, this being the most acute of any of her recent illnesses from the same cause. Dr. Chambers is in attendance.

This community is greatly indebted to the Montclairview people for helping to make the farmers' institute the success which we justly feel proud of. Now that twenty were present from that neighborhood.

J. H. Bartlett arrived home overland from Oklahoma the last of April.

The families of E. J. Payton and son Frank have left permanently for the Pecos Valley.

Mrs. I. W. Heering, son and daughter, attended our farmers' institute the first of the month.

Several school children from this and neighboring districts are planning to do the work of the Boys and Girls Industrial Clubs with Prof. W. P. Conway of the State Agricultural College. Children from fourteen years up are requested to plant a acre of milk, beef, or sorghum, and one fifth of an acre to raise beans or peanuts. Children from ten to fourteen plant only half this amount, and are privileged to have their land plowed for them.

Mrs. Nora Judd was taken to Tucumcari on Friday by her father, W. E. Trumbull, who she left for her old home in Aberdeen, Miss. She was accompanied by her two small children.

At the close of the farmers' institute a called meeting of the citizens league convened, taking up some unattended business.

The young people of the family of E. P. Perkins, three or four of whom have been confined to their beds at one time during parts of the past two weeks are reported as convalescent.

JOLLY NEW MEXICO Song to the tune of Michael Bay— We're a rollicking set of boys and girls for jolly New Mexico.

We straddle here who doesn't agree— We can spare him and let him go. For we love her prairies, sun and sky, and everything good, you know, and we'll sing and we'll shout till our throats give out.

For jolly New Mexico! Hurrah, hurrah, three cheers, that let them go!

For we'll stand by the state that we all love best— For jolly New Mexico. There's nowhere on earth so big and so wide as jolly New Mexico.

It straddles here during enough to say that it isn't set!

For we're soldiers trained enlisted for war, at the captain's word, you know. As we're ready to fight at the first command.

For jolly New Mexico! We're glad you're here, we're glad you have come to jolly New Mexico. Professor Mandell and Trumbull, see. We're a welcome for both, you know. And Hudson hopes you'll come again— we boys and girls do so.

SCHOOLBOY WANTED For steady, summer, part-time easy work. Must be bright, neatly dressed, and under fourteen years of age. Give references and mention day and hour when parent will come with boy for interview. Good pay. Splendid training. Write to R. H. Garrett.
